

Creative Hairstyling

A Cut Above The Rest

Hairstyling has come a long way from the rough and ready barber shop days. While sound technical skills count, creativity is just as important. And the interior decor of the salon has to reflect that.

Walk into Kimarie Hair and Beauty salon and you'll find yourself in an upbeat, trendy atmosphere. The setting is post-modern with state-of-the-art equipment that signifies a cool efficiency which comes from years of training and experience. A basically Minimalistic decor in earthy colours contributes to the I-mean-business look. So you can sit on those comfortable black leather chairs and leave your worries behind. Besides, the air is so-

KIMARIE View from the Top.

Recently, Kimarie - Colombo Court had the privilege of hosting Mr. Stacey Broughton, the artistic director for Vidal Sassoon in London.

Mr. Broughton conducted a two-day demonstration-studio workshop at the salon, showing staff stylists and students at Kimarie's some of the finer points in styling. He also gave an insight into the latest fashion trends in London and other fashion capitals of Europe.

Kimarie plans to invite more international

▲ Stacey Broughton demonstrating world hair points in styling

▲ Stacey Broughton with Lissa Khan, Managing Director of Kimarie

